Helping millennials navigate life

Gary James

Gary is the Co-Founder and Executive Director of Renewed Hearts Incorporated, a multi-cultural non-profit organization dedicated to helping YOU navigate the life around you, finding your purpose and passion.

Through their Friday night event "CITE" (Connect, Inspire, Transform, Empower), he and his wife mentor and train the millennial generation, preparing them to be innovative leaders and influencers that will span across any generation and culture, not only nationally but internationally as well.

They also have training for the Baby Boomers and GenXers! SAGE (Setting A Good Example) focuses on challenging them to be an example for the generations that look to them for wisdom and guidance.

Gary and Tanya have been happily married for 35 years and currently live in the metro Atlanta area. They have two sons, Gary II and Trevon, one daughter-in-law, Jayniece, three granddaughters, Jai, Miracle and Paj and one grandson, Gary III.
